

My Body Parts

Story card written by A.J.Walker

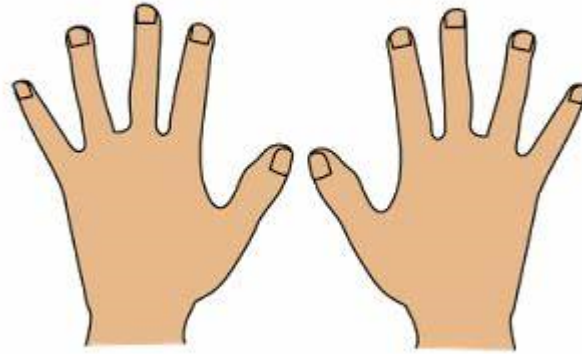

There is only one of me.
But I have many parts that makes me, me.

I have two eyes so that I can see.

I have two ears so that I can hear.

I have two hands so that I can touch.

I have one hip so that I can sit.

I have two feet so that I can walk.

Even though there is only one of me.
I have many parts that makes me, me!

Level One Questions

How many hands do you have?

Can you name other body parts that comes in pairs?

What do you use your hands for?

What are attached to your hands that help you?

What can you use your feet for?

Level Two Questions

How many hands do you have?

Give examples of things that you can touch?

Can you name at least two other body parts that are not mentioned in the story?

What are their functions?

How do people move around that cannot see?